

CRAFTFEST 2011

Suggested Parking for Visitors at CraftFest Cotuit with Free Shuttle to the Village Green:

Our CraftFest Cotuit Parking Shuttle is a familiar-looking, yellow school bus, a convenient and comfortable way to leave your secured vehicle behind and enjoy the short ride through the historic village of Cotuit directly to the festival grounds. Round-trips, with pick-up and drop-off at designated spots serving both Parking Areas, are scheduled for both Saturday and Sunday:

Saturday from 7:30 am to 5:30 pm
 Sunday from 8:30 am to 5:30 pm

Whether arriving in Cotuit via Main Street, Putnam Avenue or School Street, watch for the “FREE Parking” signs directing you to the following free parking areas, reserved all week-end for visitors to CraftFest.

At Lowell Baseball Park (Home of the Kettleers)
 With the entrance directly at 10 Lowell Avenue, between Main Street and Putnam Avenue.

At The Waldorf School (formerly Cotuit Elementary)
 With two entrances: one directly from Main Street, between Dewey Lane and East Lane, or via the principal entrance to the school at 140 Old Oyster Road.

The Village of Cotuit, Massachusetts

